

Laboratory for Infectious Diseases Common to Humans and (non-human) Primates

The Laboratory for infectious diseases common to humans and (non-human) primates based at the Institute of Vertebrate Biology Czech Academy of Sciences and University of Veterinary and Pharmaceutical Science Brno

PhD student wanted!

Epidemiology of helminth infections in great apes with emphasis on mountain gorillas in Rwanda

we are searching for a PhD candidate enrolled to PhD program of Masaryk University in Brno for ambitious topic with applications to conservation of critically endangered mountain gorillas

- ambitious topic
- international team
- field work in Rwanda
- decent salary
- start Oct 2018

...if you always wanted to do something real and to save iconic animals like Mountain gorillas, contact us today for more information!

Klára Petrželková
petrzelkova@ivb.cz